

United Nations Global Compact

The UN Global Compact: Business and Peace

PRME Global Forum
4-5 December, 2008

Melissa Powell

Head, Strategy and Partnerships

UN Global Compact Office

“Business and Peace”

“The Role of the Private Sector in Zones of Conflict” a Policy Dialogue launched in 2001

To mitigate the negative impacts & enhance the capacity of companies to contribute to development & peace

Policy papers, tools and resources to develop a “conflict-sensitive” approach

Unique multistakeholder platform for sharing good practice

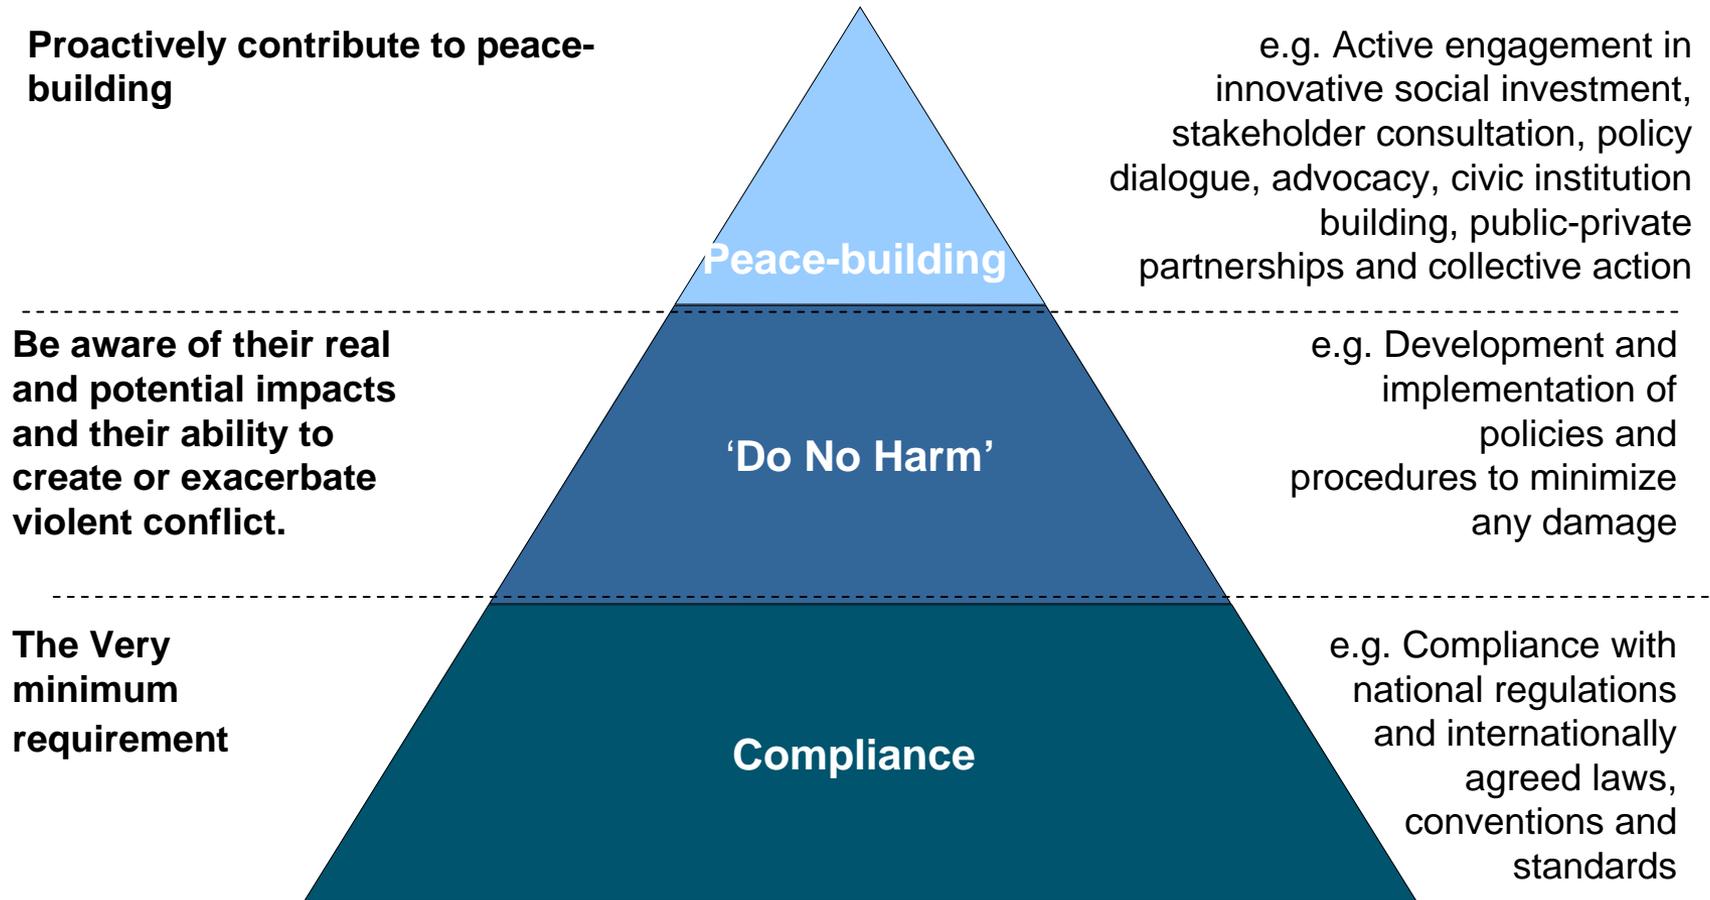

Sectoral work: extractives; financial sector

At the country level - Global Compact Local Networks (Colombia, Sudan)

Three Levels of Strategies for Managing Conflict Risks

Opportunities for Engagement

- Events and awareness-raising activities:
 - “Peace through Commerce” (Notre Dame 2006; George Washington 2008)
 - “Responsibility to the Future: business, peace, sustainability” 2008 (Strategic Foresight Group and University of Mumbai)
- Publications: “Peace through Commerce: Responsible Corporate Citizenship and the Ideals of the United Nations Global Compact” Edited by Oliver F. Williams, C.S.C.
- Research and Case Study Development:
 - Recent survey of GC participants in collaboration with the Kogod Business School, American University and International Alert

In 2009...

- Good Practice Guide of short case studies on innovative business practices that promote peace and development in challenging operating environments. Creation of a review committee.
- “Doing Business in a Multicultural Environment: Good Practices and Lessons Learned” (April ‘09 in collaboration with UN Alliance of Civilizations) Aims to inspire business to proactively engage in the promotion of tolerance & inter-cultural understanding.
- Policy Paper on Business Engagement in Weak Governance Zones to identify practical options/guidance for companies and investors to make a positive contribution in conflict-prone states.

THANK YOU
www.unglobalcompact.org

Melissa Powell
powell1@un.org

